

Code of Conduct – Municipal Officials

ADM-COC-006

1. Introduction

The purpose of this Code of Conduct is to establish rules of conduct for municipal officials. Part III of the Municipal Conduct Act, 2022 (the Act), requires that municipalities establish a Code of Conduct to govern the conduct of municipal officials and sets out minimum requirements for the Code of Conduct.

Municipal officials are expected to conduct themselves ethically and professionally, and in accordance with this Code of Conduct. The principles underlying the Code of Conduct are integrity, honesty, impartiality, responsibility and accountability.

2. Application

This Code of Conduct applies to municipal officials acting in their official capacity as municipal officials, as well as a municipal official's off-duty conduct that is sufficiently connected to their position or that could reasonably discredit the reputation of the Municipality.

For the purpose of this Code of Conduct, Municipal Official is defined to mean a chief administrative officer, an employee of a municipality, or any person acting with or without remuneration, under the direction of a municipality, including fire chiefs and fire fighter providing services for or to a municipality.

This Code of Conduct is intended to set out the expectations on municipal officials, and to be read in conjunction with any applicable employment policies or collective agreements. Nothing in this Code of Conduct is to be read in a way to limit an employer's ability to manage the workplace or discipline employees for a breach of this Code of Conduct, regardless of whether a complaint has been made, in accordance with applicable labour and/or employment law.

Interpretation: For the purpose of this policy, Chief Administrative Officer or CAO refers to the person appointed to the position of Manager under the Municipalities Act, 1999. In the event a municipality has not established the position of a town manager, the duties of the CAO under this Code of Conduct shall be performed by the Town Clerk.
